The great part about this method is that you can do it from the comfort of your own home, with the only cost being the materials you'll need. The Jerry G Method The Jerry G method is a way of removing drug traces from your hair. In an old marijuana forum, a popular cannabis user who went by the handle Jerry G invented the approach in 2008. Pros • Contains natural urine compounds • Perfect pH balance and consistency • Very easy to use • Has a built-in heat source Cons • Pricier than other brands • Short shelf life Hey, drug tests are no joke, so it's only right that you take it as seriously as you can. And if you regularly hit the pipe, then you know a simple cleanse won't do, especially if it's one of those dreaded surprise drug tests you're talking about. Worry not, my skeezy stoner friend, because you can always use the Clear Choice Incognito Belt synthetic urine kit: it's perhaps the absolute best fake pee you can get in the market right now, and rightfully so.
